Words From Past Interns

Barret Studdard (Equity Research Intern):

“This opportunity at Kennedy has both expanded my knowledge base and has taught me professionalism that I can carry on to any position in the future.”

Bo Zhang (Equity Research Intern):

“I have gained valuable insight into equity research and investing, thanks to all the opportunities and assistance that everyone kindly offered me.”

Aaron Ziska (Marketing/Equity Research Intern):

“‘Internship’ does not give the KCM program justice. The intense professional development I received during my tenure at KCM, I feel, could not have been obtained anywhere else. The program catapulted me above my peers in the classroom, and helped place me in my current position. Without this program, I’m positive that I wouldn’t be enjoying the success I have today.”
