ST. LOUIS, MO / December 12, 2022 / Kennedy Capital Management LLC (“KCM”), a specialist in small and mid-cap investment management services, announced it earned the designation of being a “2022 Best Places to Work in Money Management” within the 20 to 49 U.S. employees category published by Pensions & Investments today.

When asked what made KCM a best place to work, employees mentioned several virtues including the firm’s:

- endeavors in acknowledging the importance of an employee’s family and personal life by paying 100% of medical deductible costs for employees and dependents, providing ‘Wellness Bucks’ and offering an annual discretionary additional 401(k) match above the regular 50% match on contributions;
- ability to foster a close-knit environment with plentiful social events and lunches.

“Our firm’s foundation is based on an entrepreneurial, ethical culture that is collaborative and collegial,” said Beth Roth, Human Resource Manager. “We empower our employees to achieve their professional and personal goals while being surrounded by inclusive and diverse colleagues.”

“As their employees attest, the companies named to this year’s Best Places to Work list demonstrate a commitment to building and maintaining a strong workplace culture,” said P&I Executive Editor Julie Tatge. “Even as firms grappled with volatile markets and stresses from the pandemic, their employees said they felt strong support from their managers, enabling them to do their best work.”

“Pensions & Investments is proud to honor the Best Places to Work in Money Management for the 11th year. A strong workplace culture that supports talent, advocates progress and drives innovation is paramount to driving the best outcomes and these asset managers demonstrate that.
